"Building & Flying Together"

FROM THE PRESIDENT'S SHOP

Happy New Year to all EAA'ers!

I'm guessing that there hasn't been much aviating by our members lately but all this upside down winter weather makes for lots of good days in the shop. I hope all our builders have had some quality building time.

In case you haven't seen the latest issue of EAA's Vintage Magazine, the Waco D has a wonderful write up. It chronicles the historical nature of the airplane & the care it received from Dick & Patsy Jackson for the last 47 years. Now that the baton has been passed to Pupae & myself we have a very high standard to keep.

This month we are having our EAA 225 annual holiday extravaganza. Saturday, January 11th is the date and it will be held at the pilot lounge at Skyhaven Airport. Socializing starts at 5PM & Pot-luck dinner starting at 6PM. We will have a yankee swap immediately following dinner. Ten dollars is the maximum gift price & of course, aviation items are encouraged.

Hope to see you & your guests there!

Happy Building & Safe Flying,
John Ricciotti
EAA 225, chapter president

Keeping Our Fleet Alive & Well:

With the average age of the light aircraft fleet north of 40 years, it's a challenge to keep older aircraft maintained. In this video, Cub owner Paul Bertorelli shows how the shop uses a borescope to see deep inside the aircraft to detect any issues before they become serious, go to: <http://www.avweb.com/eletter/archives/101/2716-full.html?>
